Certificates of Deposit – Unless otherwise indicated, the term "Certificate of Deposit" also refers to your Individual Retirement Account (IRA) Certificate of Deposit.

1. Compounding and Crediting: The frequency with which dividend / interest period is the period of time at the end of which an account earns dividend / interest credit. The dividend / interest period begins on the first calendar day of the period and ends on the last calendar day of the period.

(a) For Fixed Certificates of Deposit, the interest rate and Annual Percentage Yield (APY) are fixed and will be in effect for the initial term of the account. For 12 month Fast Forward Certificates of Deposit, the dividend / interest period and ends on the last day of the period. Interest will be credited real time at funding and deposited into your choice of account (checking/savings).

2. Minimum Opening Deposits: The minimum balance requirements are set forth above. Minimum balance requirements may include a minimum opening deposit and the minimum balance requirements may include a minimum balance requirements and the minimum balance requirements and the minimum balance requirements are set forth above. for that Certificate of Deposit.

3. Compounding and Crediting: The frequency with which interest period is the Certificate of Deposit's term. The interest period begins on the first calendar day of the term and ends on the maturity date.

4. Balance Computation Method: For Certificates of Deposit, interest is calculated by the daily balance method which applies a daily periodic rate to the principle in the account each day.

5. Accrual of Interest: For Certificates of Deposit, interest will begin to accrue on the business day you deposit cash and non-cash items (such as checks) to your account.

6. Transaction Limitations: After your Certificate of Deposit Account is opened, you may not make deposits into the Account is opened, you may not make deposit or automatic renewal thereof. Your Certificates of Deposit are non-transferable and non-negotiable except for use as collateral on a loan which you obtain from us. IRA Certificate of Deposit may not be pledged as collateral.

7. Withdrawal of Interest Prior to Maturity: Interest earned may be withdrawn prior to maturity without penalty. The APY is based on an assumption that interest will remain in the Account until maturity. A withdrawal will reduce earnings. (Upon automatic renewal, interest paid in the previous term becomes principal and is subject to early withdrawal penalties.)

The penalty will equal thirty (30) days of interest in your Certificate of Deposit with a term of 12 months, and one hundred eighty (180) days of (a) interest in your Certificate of Deposit with a term greater than 12 months. The penalty has been earned at the time of withdrawal. To the extent that interest in the Certificate of Deposit at the time of withdrawal is insufficient to pay the entire penalty assessed against principal. If the balance of a Certificate of Deposit is reduced below the disclosed minimum balance, the penalty will be assessed, and the Certificate of Deposit will be closed. Upon automatic renewal, interest paid in the previous term and not withdrawn becomes principal and is subject to early withdrawal penalties. b) No Penalty CD: You may withdraw all your money including dividend earned, without any penalties, any time after the first six (6) days following the date you funded your account. Otherwise, an early withdrawal penalty will be imposed as described in section (a) above.

c) Fast Forward CD: The penalty will apply as set forth above in section (a), plus the prorated refund to the Credit Union of the upfront amount of interest paid.

9. Exceptions to Early Withdrawal Penalties: At our option, we may pay the Certificate of Deposit before maturity without imposing an early withdrawal penalty under the following circumstances: When an account owner dies or is determined legally incompetent by a court or other body of competent jurisdiction. (a)

Where the Certificate of Deposit is an Individual Retirement Account, and any portion is paid within seven (7) days after the establishment of the plan or the owner attains age 59 1/2 or becomes disabled. (b)

10. Maturity: Your Certificate of Deposit will mature as indicated on this Truth-In-Savings Disclosure, or on your transaction receipt, account summary, or statement.

11. Renewal Policies: Your Certificates of Deposit will automatically renew at maturity for the same term and at the interest rate then being paid on Certificate of Deposit of that type and term. You will have a grace period of seven (7) calendar days after the maturity date to withdraw the funds in the Certificate of Deposit withdrawal penalty. The above notwithstanding, the Credit Union may, at its election, notify you not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the maturity date that (a) the Certificate of Deposit will not be renewed for a different term or, (b) the Certificate of Deposit will not be renewed at maturity, funds in your Certificate of Deposit will be paid into your Regular Share Account and will earn dividends at the rate and APY paid on those Accounts.
